

WEN KANG

Counsel·Shanghai

+86 21 2208 1121

wen.kang@fangdalaw.com

PRACTICE AREA

MS. KANG SPECIALIZES IN COMMERCIAL DISPUTE RESOLUTION, INSOLVENCY, LIQUIDATION AND RESTRUCTURING.

Education

- Shanghai Jiao Tong University, LL.M.
- Southwest University of Political Science and Law, LL.B.

Professional Qualification

- Admitted to practice in the PRC

Professional Background

- Ms. Kang joined the firm in 2015.

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS AND CASES

Insolvency, liquidation and restructuring

- Acted as the bankruptcy administrator for ZK Engineering & Development Corporation's headquarters in the first-ever prepackaged bankruptcy in Shanghai, with the debts at issue amounting to billions
- Acted as the counselor for the bankruptcy administrator of Neoglory Group and its affiliates, with debts at issue amounting to billions
- Acted as the administrator for a coal trading company in the first bankruptcy case ever accepted by the Shanghai No. 3 Intermediate People's Court in a bankruptcy liquidation proceeding, with debts at issue amounting to approximately RMB 3.4 billion
- Represented an audit firm administrator in a restructuring proceeding in Shanghai, with debts at issue amounting to approximately RMB 1 billion
- Represented an asset management company in its bankruptcy investment in a large private company in Shandong Heze, with debts at issue amounting to approximately RMB 20 billion
- Represented the creditors' committee in the restructuring of Yurun, with assets at issue amounting to billions
- Represented various clients as investors or creditors in bankruptcy cases
- Represented shareholders and liquidators of foreign-invested companies in voluntary and mandatory liquidation proceedings

Commercial dispute resolution

- Assisted a leading PRC asset management company in handling disputes with numerous fund investors and in participating in related PRC litigation and arbitration
- Assisted a well-known overseas listed company in a complex, high-value multijurisdictional dispute arising from financial manipulation by the founders of a domestic sanitary ware company acquired by the client, with assistance including participating in tort litigation against the founders, advising the client on related litigation and arbitration proceedings in other jurisdictions, and participating in the target company's insolvency reorganization proceedings on behalf of the client as the largest creditor
- Advised the PRC affiliate of a leading global financial institution on its response to the China Securities

Regulatory Commission (CSRC)'s supervision and inspection of its securities transactions utilizing program trading and multiple AMPs, and represented the client in the administrative hearing proceedings for the administrative penalties proposed by the CSRC

- Acted for banks in handling litigation, arbitration and enforcement proceedings related to loan disputes, financial derivatives disputes, etc.
- Acted for a renowned automobile seat company in dealing with a dispute related to a logistics service contract
- Assisted a renowned automobile company in dealing with disputes and PRC litigation arising from sales contracts, investments, reputational infringement, etc.
- Advised fund sales companies and local banks on electronic contracts and electronic signatures, loan compliance, etc.